Medication Service During Coronavirus

This service does not replace any arrangements you have already in place for collection of medication
There is no cost for this service which is confidential of your needs.

Repeat Prescriptions

Whilst Hartland Surgery are offering a telephone service for repeat prescriptions, your contact will also deliver your repeat prescription if required. If you prefer not to enter the Surgery, prescriptions can be posted through the letter box.

Bradworthy Surgery currently do not offer a telephone service, but a volunteer can collect your repeat prescription and take it to the surgery as well as collect it your medication.

Delivery of Prescription

Overleaf you will find the contact name and number of those who are authorised by Hartland Medical Centre and Bradworthy Surgery to collect and deliver your prescription medicines.

Both Hartland Medical Centre and Bradworthy Surgery will be delivering prescriptions to Woolsey shop on a Thursday. Woolsey shop will telephone your contact in order to arrange necessary deliveries.

The Surgery will not contact you to inform you that your prescription is ready.

From the date of order, you will need to allow 3 working days before collection.

If there is no answer to your phone call please leave a message with your name and telephone number. Someone will get back to you as soon as they can. If you are not sure of your area just ring the one you think is nearest.

Feeling Anxious and Want to Talk?

Along with the list of volunteers overleaf Shirley Henderson (01237 431264) our retired Reverend and Jane Skinner (01237 431622) the current Rector are available to chat.
